Wohlstetter Conference Center, Twelfth Floor, AEI
1150 Seventeenth Street, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20036

The Shadow Financial Regulatory Committee (SFRC) is a group of publicly recognized independent experts on the financial services industry, including banking, insurance, and securities, who meet regularly to study and critique regulatory policies affecting this sector of the economy. At the two closed sessions before the luncheon, committee members will discuss, among other things, mutual fund industry and NYSE problems, GSE privatization, a SEC proposal on shareholder democracy, and the regulation of hedge funds.

At the luncheon press briefing that follows these meetings, SFRC members will issue one or more statements.
