

AEI TRADE POLICY SEMINAR

Three Cheers for Globalization

Wednesday, March 10, 2004, 2:00-4:30 p.m.
Wohlstetter Conference Center, Twelfth floor, AEI
1150 Seventeenth Street, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20036

AEI adjunct scholar Jagdish Bhagwati, professor at Columbia University and international trade economist, will present his new book, In Defense of Globalization (Oxford University Press, 2004). In the first panel, Bhagwati and two prominent experts on the international economy, Douglas Irwin of Dartmouth College and Daniel Tarullo of Georgetown University Law School, will discuss and evaluate his findings. In the second panel, AEI's James K. Glassman will lead a group of AEI scholars in a wide-ranging roundtable discussion of the issues and challenges presented by globalization.
