

Tocqueville on China: The Role of Nationalism in Chinese Society

Friday, February 8, 2008, 9:00 a.m.–3:30 p.m.
Wohlstetter Conference Center, Twelfth Floor, AEI
1150 Seventeenth Street, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20036

Below is the agenda for the fourth meeting in our Tocqueville on China series, which will examine the role of nationalism in Chinese society. The day will be organized around five sessions. Each session will include a short presentation which will serve as an introduction to the topic, followed by a discussion.

8:30 a.m. Coffee & Continental Breakfast

9:00 Session I: Popular Nationalism and China's Role in the World
Presenter: PETER HAYS GRIES, University of Oklahoma

Tocqueville on Nationalism
Presenter: ROBERT GANNETT, author of Tocqueville Unveiled

10:45 Session II : Nationalism as Patriotism – Chinese Political Culture and Identity
Presenter: SUIHENG ZHAO, University of Denver

Noon Working Lunch
Session III: Nationalism and China's Multiethnic Empire
Presenter: DRU GLADNEY, Pomona College

2:00 Session IV: Taiwanese Nationalism
Presenter: LOWELL DITTMER, University of California, Berkeley

3:30 Adjournment